Set on the outer fringes of the picturesque village of Stock in Essex, the design of the building was inspired by Sir Edwin Luyten the best known Architect in the early 20th Century, who championed the use of space and views.

The rooms reflect this with simplicity and plentiful views of the stunning countryside from every vista. Vitality, romance, style and elegance are retained to enhance the charm and warmth of this fine English Country Manor House.

Set in over 275 acres of stunning English countryside and boasting exquisite décor, Stock Brook Manor is an idyllic setting for a wedding.

The reception suites are spacious and blessed with natural light to give an elegant and romantic atmosphere to your very special occasion. Perfect for memories that will last a lifetime.

Great Blunts House was originally built in the 17th Century and once owned by Elizabeth Woodville, the wife of Edward IV.

It has since been rebuilt, remodelled and embellished, as lifetimes and the imagination of its owners changed its face across the centuries, to its splendour of today.

Great Blunts Farmhouse, Grade II listed £2.5million luxury boutique accommodation in the grounds of Stock Brook Manor, has been restored to offer nine spacious bedrooms.

Just beyond the North Wing, providing self-contained seclusion, the stables have also been extended and renovated to offer a further 14 courtyard stable rooms, including a beautiful bridal suite.

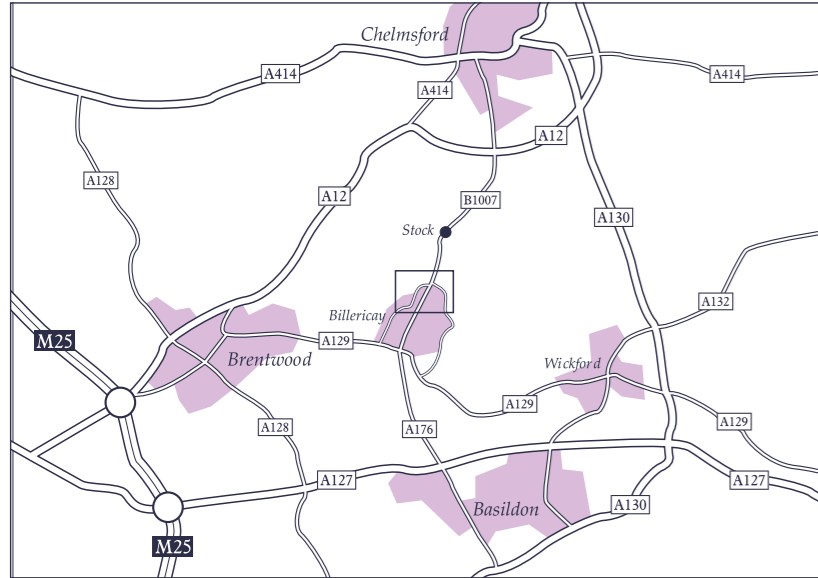

Discover a world of luxury boutique accommodation, where you can relax surrounded by sumptuous White Company products and linens.

With an attention to detail that extends throughout everything. Beautifully designed, simple, elegant pieces, but with individuality and style.
